Lodge a Police Report

If you have a minor accident where both drivers exchange details and no one is injured then there is no legal obligation upon you to report it to police, still it is good practice to do so anyway.

CONTACT THE POLICE ON 131 444 if required

OR

IN MOST CASES Lodge a police report online:

<https://www.police.wa.gov.au>

NOTE: Once your form is submitted, you will receive a submission number beginning with "SDP". This is not an incident report number, but advice that your report has been successfully submitted.

Your report will be loaded within 7 business days and you will receive an incident report number and link to Check my Crime via a separate email.

Important Information

IF YOU FIND YOU ARE A VICTIM OF A CAR ACCIDENT DO NOT IMMEDIATELY ADMIT FAULT. Submit your claim first.

Most people are not aware of how nerve-racking and tense having a car accident is. Fill in this form as best as you can, then snapshot it and send it to claims@avoca.com.au. If you do not possess a smart phone or access to a scanner at least you have all the details in hand to submit a claim.

WA law mandates that drivers involved in a crash must stop and supply their name and address.
